Slagle for the Ticket

To those who supported me in the recent campaign for Trustee in which I was defeated by only 50 votes I feel assured of the fact that this whole army of men 900 strong will join me in saying that no boodle, booze or bargains were used for votes and that you all supported me for conscience sake. I now wish to extend to each and every one of you my most sincere thanks.

It has been my lifelong ambition to be a leader, to hold a position where I could be of some use to suffering humanity, as well as others who are worthy of favors.

But my humble life has been void of environment that would lead to such and my ambitions have been defeated. I struggled with outstretched hands to grasp the flag of victory, but seized instead, the emblems of defeat.

To those who cast their vote for my successful opponent, making him the standard bearer for the office of Trustee,

I now join your ranks, inviting my followers to fall in line with us and help to carry not only him but the whole ticket to victory.

It is easy enough to be happy when life goes along like a song;

But the man worth while is the man who will smile when everything goes dead wrong.

Now let us all look forward to the day when victory will be ours. It is said every dog has his day. According to this philosophy mine is yet to come.

So look out for me again—in about two years.

Again thanking the entire citizenship of Putnam County for the hospitality shown me during this last race, I remain your humble servant,

D. E. Slagle.
